

MAKING HOPE REAL

A Fort Bend Theresian Day of Prayer and Reflection

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2019, 8:30 Registration, 9am-2pm

St. Laurence Catholic Church, Ave Maria Parish Life Center, 3100 Sweetwater Boulevard, Sugar Land, Texas

“Hope is an invitation to see and appreciate the world, much like God does, and believe that things can improve. It is a call to action, rather than a chance to stick our heads in the sand like an ostrich and cross our fingers. At our Day of Prayer, Becky will show you how to make hope real, even when your season of life feels anything but hopeful. She will offer you tools on how to name what’s really going on in your life, how to bring the reality of what you are facing to God and how to nurture hope.”

“We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure.”~ Hebrews 6:19

Becky Eldredge is an Ignatian-trained spiritual director, retreat facilitator, and writer. She is passionate about helping others cultivate space for God in daily life. Becky is the author of the book Busy Lives and Restless Souls. She holds a Masters in Pastoral Studies from Loyola University New Orleans with a focus on Christian Spirituality. She has a Certificate of Spiritual Direction from Spring Hill University, a Masters of Education and a Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education from Louisiana State University. She lives in Baton Rouge with her husband and three children.
